

Treatment Record Review Clinical Practice Guidelines Scoring Tool

Schizophrenia

CPG - Substance Abuse Tool
Domain 1: Diagnostic Assessment
1A) HISTORY AND SYMPTOM PRESENCE AND DURATION that meets DSM-IV criteria for substance use disorder
1B) A CO-MORBID SUBSTANCE -INDUCED DISORDER
1C) OTHER PSYCHIATRIC DISORDERS that could account for the symptoms or complicate treatment
1D) PSYCHOSOCIAL STRESSORS
1E) MEDICAL CONDITIONS that may cause depression and/or complicate treatment
1F) PAST AND CURRENT MEDICATIONS (abstinence aids) AND RESPONSE (including side effects)
1G) TREATMENT PARTICIPATION
1H) DANGEROUSNESS TO OTHERS
1I) RISK FACTORS FOR RELAPSE AND READINESS TO CHANGE
1J) PSYCHIATRIC REFERRAL: (If provider is a non-MD, and there is no evidence of a recent psychiatric evaluation, there is documentation of a referral for a psychiatric evaluation)
Domain 3: Substance use Disorder Therapeutic Interventions
2A) Treatment plan includes appropriate FAMILY/SUPPORT PERSON INVOLVEMENT
2B) Treatment plan includes MEASURABLE TARGETS for each intervention
2C) Treatment plan includes addressing co-morbid psychiatric disorders
B- Plan of Care
2D) Treatment plan includes referral to self-help groups
Domain 3: Substance use Disorder Therapeutic Interventions
2E) Delivered education about substance use disorder and its treatment to the member and the family
2F) If a medical or psychiatric referral was made, the provider documented the results of the evaluation and any relevant adjustments to the treatment plan
2G) If provider is a physician, there is evidence of considering abstinence-aiding medication
2H) If provider is prescribing buprenorphine, there is evidence of periodic urine testing for illicit opiates
2I) There is evidence of attempting to collaborate with any physician prescribing pain medication in a patient abusing analgesics

2J) If provider finds evidence of potential relapse, provider plans interventions to address relapse

2K) There is evidence at every visit of assessment of progress toward goals

ASAM Specific

4A) ASAM placement/admission review documented

4B) Consumer meets ASAM criteria for current level of care

4C) ASAM reviews are thoroughly documented

4D) Admission/Continued Stay/Transfer/Discharge ASAM reviews are timely

4E) Stage of change is documented on continued stay reviews